This tournament is being held alongside the Just Dogs Live Event on the 9th/10th/11th July 2010.

Just Dogs Live incorporates the East of England Championship Dog Show and will include the traditional Crufts qualifier showing classes.

The show, now in its second year, will also feature additional attractions, including demonstrations and competitions to ensure the event is a fantastic day out for all dog lovers, young and old.

Just a selection of the demos, have-a-gos and competitions that are happening are...

Laines Shooting School & Mullenscote Gundogs

Essex Dog Display Team

Canine Partners

Pets As Therapy

Prison Dog Display

Scurry Bandits

For more information please see their website - <http://www.justdogslive.co.uk/>

The area of the showground that is covered by the BFA sanctioned tournament is not part of UK Kennel Club Licensed show, and you are free to come and go within this area as you please.

If you wish to visit the main show you are also free to do so, and we will supply you with wrist bands to enable you to enter the show FOC. However, if you wish to take your dog into the KC area of the showground, you will be required to sign a declaration form in accordance with the KC rules. These forms will be readily available in the secretary's area of our show.
